From the Shops of Grand River:

The Outlet Shops of Grand River, a distinctive outlet shopping destination located minutes from Downtown Birmingham, announced Wednesday Justice, the popular preteen clothing and accessories store for girls ages 9 to 12, will open a 4,000 square foot store on Tues., August 2, much to the delight of nine-year-old Mountain Brook resident Mae Neil.

Earlier this year Neil, daughter of Daniel Corporation Vice President of Development Doug Neil, the company responsible for developing the new center, penned a letter asking her favorite clothing brand to consider opening a new store at The Outlet Shops of Grand River. Now, her wish has come true, and just in time for back-to-school shopping to boot!

“We’re thrilled to welcome Justice to our growing merchant community,” said Judy Underhill, general manager, The Outlet Shops of Grand River. “We’re committed to offering our customers a distinctive mix of exciting tenants with great merchandise and great savings. The arrival of Justice is yet another example our efforts to bring the leading name brands that our shoppers want to the center and adding to this unique outlet shopping destination.”
